

I'm a designer leather club chair. I sit in the lobby of a trendy bank. Can I tell you the difference between inflationary pressure and post lunch indigestion? Can I tell you how to solve inventory shortfalls like a business banker? No, all I can tell you is, "Sit down sport, you're probably going to be waiting a good long time." That's what I would say. I'm a designer leather club chair.

At South Valley we focus on business, not decorating.
